You can travel by S-Bahn and U-Bahn or by bus and U-Bahn. Both routes are described below.

Travelling by S-Bahn and U-Bahn:

In the Basement of Terminal 1 is the train station.

Take the S-Bahn 45 towards "Südkreuz" (10 stops) to the S-Bahn and U-Bahn station "Neukölln." The trip takes about 30 minutes.

At "Neukölln" station, please transfer and take the U7 U-Bahn in the basement towards "Rathaus Spandau" to the "Blissestraße" station (13 stops). This takes about 20 minutes.

Travelling by Bus and U-Bahn:

Take bus X71 towards "U Alt-Mariendorf via U Rudow" or bus X7 towards "U-Bahnhof Rudow." After about 20 minutes (2 stops), get off at "Rudow" station. Take the U7 U-Bahn towards "Spandau Bahnhof" and travel to the "Blissestraße" station (22 stops). This takes about 30 minutes.

Walking Route from U-Bahnhof Blissestraße to our office:

In the direction of travel (Spandau) of the U-Bahn, there is a staircase and an elevator at the front of the platform. The elevator is located to the right of the stairs. Walk up the stairs and then turn right towards the exit "Brandenburgische Straße/Berliner Straße/Deutscher Paritätischer Wohlfahrtsverband/Dietrich-Bonhoeffer-Bibliothek" to the next staircase.

Exit of U-Bahnhof Blissestraße

This will bring you in front of the Sparkasse building. Walk straight for about 20 meters to the intersection of Berliner Street/Brandenburgische Street and cross it. Note: The traffic light phase is very short, so you might need to wait at the pedestrian island for the next green light. Follow the path for about 70 meters.

Junction of Berliner Street and Brandenburgische Street

If you use the elevator at the U-Bahn, you will reach a pedestrian island in the middle of the large street. Walk straight ahead for about 30 meters and then turn 90 degrees to the right, crossing at the traffic light onto the sidewalk in front of the Sparkasse.

Elevator Exit U-Bahnhof Blissestraße

Turn 90 degrees again to cross the intersection Berliner Str./Brandenburgische Str.. Please note: The traffic lights are very short, which is why you can wait on a pedestrian island at the halfway point for the next green phase.

Junction of Berliner Street and Brandenburgische Street

Follow the footpath for about 70 meters. House number 44 is located after a parking lot entrance. The doorbell is on the left-hand side of the door. You will recognize it by the blue lettering with our logo. Walk straight ahead through the main entrance and go through the glazed passageway on the left. Before the stairs, you will find the elevator on the left, which is wheelchair accessible.

Elevator and staircase on the left side lead to our office on the third floor

Our office is on the third floor. The entrance door is on the left-hand side of the elevator. There is a bell on the right side of the door.
